

The Third World Non-Communicable Diseases Congress (WNCD 2023) will take place from June 25 to 30, 2023 at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre in Toronto, Canada, and we are celebrating the one year to Congress milestone! Have you saved the dates in your calendar?

WNCD 2023 will cover major NCDs (for example, Cardiovascular, Cancer, Diabetes, Respiratory, and Mental Illness) and their risk factors through key lenses including:

- 1) Basic research, clinical sciences, public health, epidemiology, and behavioural sciences
- 2) Health policy, promotion, and economics
- 3) Use of modern application tools, such as Big Data Analytics, Machine Learning, Artificial Intelligence, Wearable Technologies, and more

The Scientific Committee, headed by Dr. Paul McDonald, have been extremely busy drafting Congress themes, inviting potential Keynote speakers and developing the Call for Abstracts, which will open this September. Please forward this email to anyone who will be interested in presenting their research and encourage them to join our mailing list so they will receive the announcement when abstract submission opens.

WNCD 2023 will be a hybrid congress, with in-person and virtual participation. The program will feature full and half day preconference symposiums and workshops, plenary sessions, dozens of concurrent paper sessions, poster presentations, exhibits, and valuable networking time. Visit the Program at a Glance page to learn more about the Congress program.

Today, we invite you to mark June 25 to 30, 2023 in your calendars and forward this email to your colleagues who might be interested in attending the WNCD23.

Sponsors and Exhibitors

WNCD 2023 will provide several opportunities for organizations and companies to support and partner with the Congress. Visit the Sponsor and Exhibitors page on our website to download the sponsorship prospectus and explore the sponsorship opportunities. For more information on opportunities and to join as a Sponsor or Exhibitor, please email info@torontownc2023.org.

We look forward to seeing you in person and virtually in June 2023!
