

World Non-Communicable Diseases Congress 2023

Equitable and Sustainable Health For All

Pre-Congress Symposia and Workshops: June 25 & 26, 2023

Main Congress: June 27 – 30, 2023

Metro Toronto Convention Centre

Abstract Submission is open!

Visit the WNCD Website to view the Abstract submission guidelines. <https://www.torontownc2023.org/abstracts/>

torontowncd2023.org
#WNCD2023

Congress Purpose

At a local, regional and global level:

Expand networks, knowledge, perspectives and approaches for researching, preventing, treating, and managing non-communicable diseases

The Congress in numbers

- The Congress will address six sub-themes
- Over 800 participants
- Over 1,000 oral and poster abstracts expected
- 7 Plenary sessions and more than 42 panel discussions

torontowncd2023.org
#WNCD2023

Six NCD sub-themes/tracts:

- Reducing Inequities on the impact of NCDs
- The impact of climate and environmental change on NCDs
- NCDs across the human lifespan
- Identifying multi-morbidity and multi-disciplinary solutions for reducing the impact of NCDs
- New research, perspectives, policies, technologies and practices
- Improving governance, multi-lateral collaboration and rapid scientific exchange

torontowncd2023.org
#WNCD2023

